Dear Readers!

Nothing is more satisfying than the joy to see what little good we could accomplish in the days that we are never to encounter again- making the most of each moment is a cherished prize. By the blessing of the Allah Almighty, the College had a wonderful session packed with all the best for the young eaglets to soar and glide with pride and joy. This issue mirrors the proud moments, struggling days and insightful experiences of Hallians, inside and outside the Campus - all writing a legacy unknowingly and unrelentingly. Hope each leaf with the brief glimpses will bring a smile; a satisfaction to know that we can make the moments a memory and a history worth chronicled.

May the current edition build harmony and goodwill among readers and Hallian family!
